Monterey Iron Tree Treats are readily soluble capsules formulated to help alleviate yellowing (iron chlorosis) and other micronutrient deficiencies in trees.

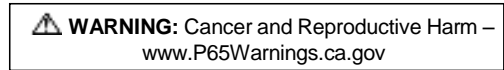

See Dosage Chart to determine the number of plugs based on diameter of tree.

Simply measure the tree diameter 12 inches above the ground. Drill a small 3/8-inch hole for each capsule 1-1/2 inches deep. Drill holes uniformly around the tree at different heights to avoid weakening the tree. Place capsules into each hold. Grafting wax may be used to seal the holes. After 2-3 weeks you may apply again to areas that have not greened up.

Treatments are most effective from the time of leaf-out until the end of July. The most successful results occur early in the growing season.

DOSAGE CHART
Tree Diameter	Number of Holes & Capsules
Over 2 feet (60 cm)	10 holes
12-18 inches (30-45 cm)	8 holes
6-9 inches (15-23 cm)	4 holes
5 inches (7.5-10 cm)	2 holes
